Additional InformationRisk Factors

Currency risk: The Fund has holdings which are denominated in currencies other than sterling and may be affected by movements in exchange rates. Consequently the value of an investment may rise or fall in line with the exchange rates.

Credit risk: Part of the fund is invested in bonds. The government or company issuer of a bond might not be able to repay either the interest or the original loan amount and therefore default on the debt. This would affect the credit rating of the bond and, in turn, the value of the fund.

Interest rate risk: Investment in bonds and other debt instruments (including related derivatives) is subject to interest rate risk. If long-term interest rates rise, the value of your shares is likely to fall.

Further risk factors that apply to the fund can be found in the fund's Prospectus and Supplement

The value of participatory interests or the investment may go down as well as up and past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. The performance is calculated for the portfolio and the actual individual investor performance will differ as a result of initial fees, the actual investment date, the date of reinvestment and dividend withholding tax. All terms exclude costs.

Collective investment schemes are traded at ruling prices and can engage in borrowing and scrip lending. Collective investment schemes are generally medium to long-term investments. The management company does not provide any guarantee either with respect to the capital or the return of a portfolio. The management company has a right to close the portfolio to new investors in order to manage it more efficiently in accordance with its mandate. A schedule of fees and charges and maximum commissions is available on request from the manager.

The risk category was calculated using historical performance data and may not be a reliable indicator of the portfolio's future risk profile. The portfolio's risk category is not guaranteed to remain fixed and may change over time. A portfolio in the lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment. The portfolio is in this category because it can take higher risks in search of higher rewards and its price may rise and fall accordingly. Fluctuations or movements in exchange rates may cause the value of underlying investments to go up or down. Effective Annual Disclosure

The Effective Annual Cost (EAC) is a measure which has been introduced to allow you to compare the cost you incur when you invest in different financial products. It is expressed as a percentage of your investment amount. The EAC is made up of three charges, which are added together, as shown in the table on page 1. Some of the charges may vary, depending on your investment period.

The EAC calculation assumes that an investor terminates his or her investment in the financial product at the end of the relevant periods shown in the table.

The EAC is calculated as the total of TER and TC and Initial Fee:

- The Total Expense Ratio (TER) of the financial product are incurred as expenses relating to the administration of the product. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TER's.
- Transaction Costs (TC) of the financial product are incurred as costs relating to the buying and selling of the assets underlying the product. TC's are a necessary cost in administering the product and impacts the product's returns. It should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over time including market returns, type of financial product, investment decisions of the investment manager and the TER.
- Any advice fee (Initial Fee) is negotiable between the client and their financial advisor. An annual advice fee negotiated is paid via a repurchase of units from the investor.
