SPW BALANCED PORTFOLIO

30 SEPTEMBER 2026

Conservative | Cautious | Moderate | Moderate Aggressive | Aggressive

PORTFOLIO DESCRIPTION AND INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

This multi-asset class portfolio invests in equities, bonds, money market instruments and property, both locally and offshore. The portfolio will aim for long-term capital growth. However, a higher exposure to growth assets (equities and properties) is likely to lead to higher volatility over the short term. Investment performance will be driven by active stock picking and asset allocation. This portfolio may have a maximum effective equity exposure (including international equity) of up to 75% and a maximum effective property exposure (including international property) of up to 25% of the market value of the portfolio. Total allowable offshore exposure is 45%.

YOUR PERSONAL BALANCED PORTFOLIO

The SPW Balanced Portfolio is constructed by the investment team based on an intensive and rigorous investment process. The model portfolio acts as a guide to your portfolio manager in customising your personal portfolio to suit your individual requirements. It is important to note that the performance on this fact sheet is based on the model portfolio and the performance of your portfolio may vary depending on the level of deviation from the model portfolio and the fees charged.

WHY SELECT A PERSONAL PORTFOLIO

A personal portfolio is suitable to more discerning investors who might have unique factors to consider during the investment process. With a personal portfolio, your investment can be tailored to your unique requirements. You will have the benefit of more direct access to your portfolio manager. Your portfolio will not be affected by the cash investment and withdrawals of other investors.

QUARTERLY PORTFOLIO MANAGER`S COMMENTS

The third quarter of 2026 was a more challenging period for global markets as renewed tensions between the US and Iran reignited inflation concerns. Oil prices rose sharply after both countries resumed military strikes and hopes for a diplomatic resolution faded.

In response to the renewed inflationary pressures, major central banks adopted a more hawkish stance. The US Federal Reserve, European Central Bank and Bank of Japan all raised interest rates during the quarter, signalling increasing concern about inflation amid generally resilient economic conditions. Economic activity remained robust, particularly in the US, where business surveys pointed to continued expansion and healthy corporate earnings growth.

Global equity markets delivered mixed results. The S&P 500 gained 2.3% over the quarter as strong earnings and continued investment in artificial intelligence (AI) infrastructure supported investor sentiment. Large technology companies remained among the strongest performers. However, returns were less favourable in other regions, with European equities ending the quarter slightly lower as higher energy prices and rising interest rates weighed on market confidence. In rand terms, developed market equities returned 2.0%, while the FTSE/JSE All Share Index declined 0.3% over the quarter.

Fixed income markets faced headwinds as investors adjusted to a higher inflation and interest-rate environment. Government bond yields rose sharply, with US 10-year Treasury yields reaching their highest level since 2007. As a result, sovereign bond markets generated negative returns across most developed economies. Commodity markets were among the strongest performers, benefiting from supply concerns and geopolitical uncertainty. In rand terms, global bonds declined by 2.4%, while SA bonds, as measured by the All Bond Index, declined 0.7%. The gold price recovered a small portion of its heavy losses in the second quarter, rising 2.9% in the third quarter.

The SPW Balanced portfolio delivered a return of 3.3% - net of fees - for the 12 months to the end of September and 10.9% annualised over the past three years. The portfolio's emerging market equity holdings, along with its SA bank holdings and Glencore, contributed positively to returns over the past year, but this was offset by weaker returns from Naspers and SA retailers, and a challenging year for the Sanlam Global High Quality equity strategy. During the quarter, we reduced our holding in Goldfields after the rebound in the gold price to a level where we see the risk versus the reward as less compelling.
